Why am I in a class I didn't request?

It may be a class chosen for you based on something you need for graduation or it may be simply an error.

How do I change my schedule?

We are only making changes to Trimester 1 schedules at this time. To do this, set up an appointment to meet with your counselor to review your request.

How long do I have to make a change to my schedule?

September 10 is the last day to make changes to your Trimester 1 schedule.

What classes are available for me to take?

The master schedule will be available online to view and in the Career Center. Classes on the grid will indicate closed classes.

Can I change my Trimester 2 or Trimester 3 classes?

Starting September 15 you may set up an appointment with your counselor to review your request.

How come I don't see the full year of my schedule?

Schedules are currently being balanced and adjusted for the year. Full year schedules will be made available after September 15.

Can I get into a class that is already full?

If the class is indicated as being full, then there is no more room.

Do I go to my class if it is a class that I would like to drop?

Yes. Once school begins, you must attend your classes until an official change has occurred to your schedule or you will be marked absent.
